

Level 2

Understanding Behaviour that Challenges

What is it?

Qualification Overview

This qualification helps learners develop a deeper understanding of behaviour that challenges, including its possible causes, triggers and impact on individuals and those around them. Learners will explore how different factors can influence behaviour and develop practical strategies to respond safely, appropriately and positively. It also covers effective communication, person-centred support and ways to promote positive behaviour and wellbeing. The qualification is ideal for anyone working with individuals across education, health and social care, childcare or community-based settings.
